

Purchases per country

Here the chart shows that there is a high diversity in the purchases. The USA has the most purchases with 157 then Canada with 107, While countries like Chile or Hungary have so low buys with 9, 11 respectively. This shows us that countries with a bad economy are not investing much in buying music.

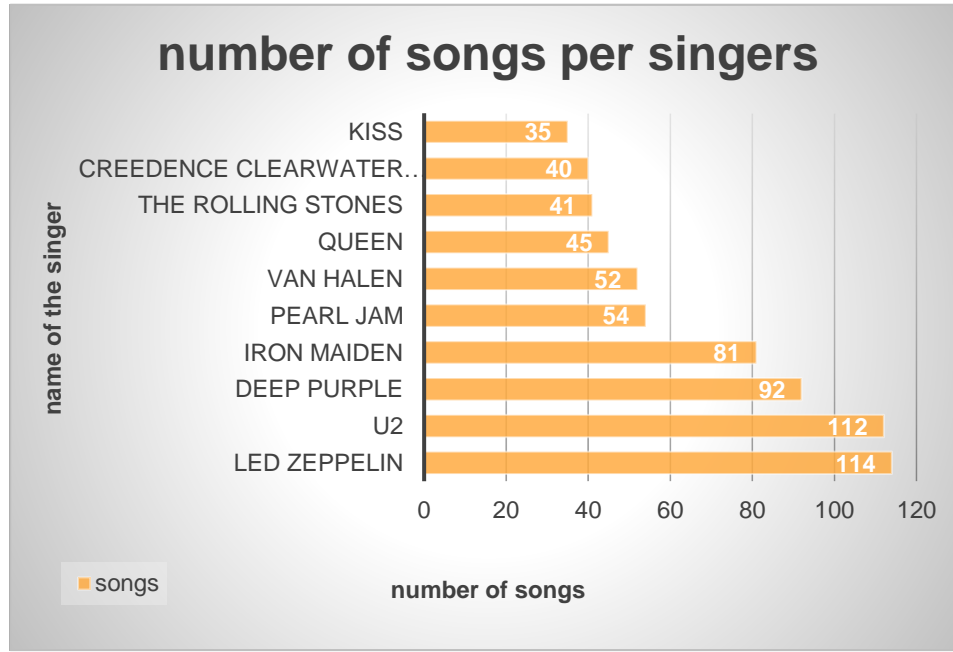

pie chart for total invoices per cities

The pie chart shows the first 10 cities in the total invoices.

Here in the pie chart, we can see that prague has the most amount of invoices with 14 percent while Dublin, Paris, and Santiago all have the lowest with 7 percent.

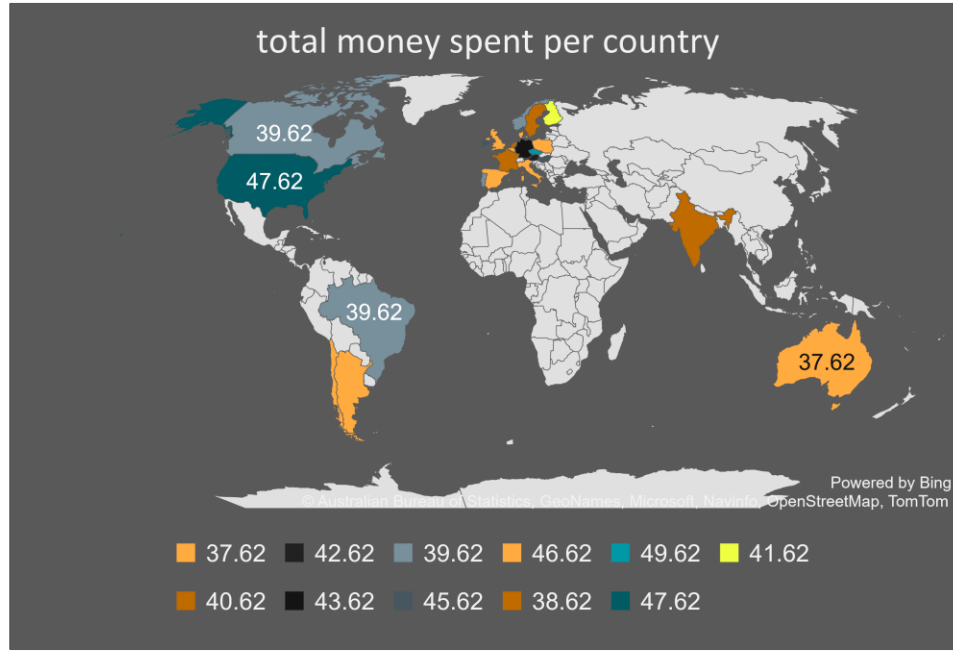

bar chart for number of songs

In this bar chart, we chose the first 10 singers with the most number of songs in the rock category.

The chart describes the how there are singers with more than three times the number of songs as other singers like Led Zeppelin map for the total money for countries

Here on the map, we can see that in North America the total spent is above average while in Australia and South America the total spent was is low total spent while in Europe have a good total spent Germany has the highest spent of all the countries.